Day 2: Rome walking tour

Campo de Fiori,

Rome's famous outdoor market

In the morning, meet your private guide to discover some incredible sites of Rome, beginning with skip-the-line tickets to the Vatican. The complex contains one of the largest and most spectacular art displays in the world, including Michelangelo's breathtaking Last Judgment in the Sistine Chapel. In the afternoon, we suggest that you visit another masterpiece, the Colosseum. Then it's time to relax and enjoy the Roman nightlife.

Day 3: Rome culinary experience

Plan your trip to Italy

Chat with a local specialist who can help organize your trip.

Rome is also internationally famous for its mouth-watering cuisine, and today it's time to experience the best of Lazio's culture and cuisine while discovering lesser-known corners. With your personal guide, visit Trastevere, one of the most picturesque Roman neighborhoods with its narrow cobblestone streets and laneways. You'll visit local food stores, taste and eat many local specialties, and talk to the wonderful families working hard to preserve Roman food traditions. Spend your last afternoon in the Eternal City walking around.

Day 4: Florence, the Renaissance Jewel

Early in the morning, you'll take a private transfer to the Roma Termini station and then a fast train to Florence. You'll reach this wonderful city in less than two hours. Once here, a private transfer to your hotel will be waiting, and you'll meet with your private guide for a special tour: the Duomo, Palazzo Pitti, and Piazza della Signoria are just a few examples of the great masterpieces you'll see during this walk. Don't miss the Accademia Gallery to see the gorgeous David! Late in the afternoon, it's time to relax and enjoy a tasty dinner in one of the many local trattorias.

Day 5: Artisan cooking class in Florence

In the morning, you'll meet with your guide for a special day tour that will lead you directly to the Oltrarno area on the other bank of the river. This is the most authentic part of the city, full of historical workshops with many kinds of handicrafts. Appreciate the skills of paper and mosaic artisans, visiting their workshops, and you'll learn how they create their marvelous products. You'll be directly involved in three special laboratories: a special gelato cooking class, a marble paper laboratory, and a painting workshop. Your day will end with a special pizza cooking class in the heart of the city.

Day 6: Explore Venice

In the morning, you'll take your private transfer to Venice, the floating city. Check in at a lovely hotel, a few steps from San Marco Square. Meet your private guide who will show you the Venetian architecture and the artistic patrimony. Late in the afternoon, you'll experience a characteristic and romantic gondola tour along the main canals.

Day 7: Venetian Islands of Murano and Burano

This morning, you'll explore the quiet islands of Murano and Burano. These colorful islands are famous for their glassmaking, their lacework, and, of course, their bright kaleidoscopic buildings. With a private boat and a personal tour guide, you'll discover these colorful villages and have a stroll around the narrow streets. Then head back to Venice and enjoy more time to explore the city and its special atmosphere.
